Songbirds are Free
Historical Fiction by p.m.terrell

- What happened to Mary Neely on that hot August day in 1780?
- Which tribe abducted her and where did they take her?
- Why did they rename her “Songbird”?
- What choices was she given during her initiation into the tribe, impacting her fate?
- Why did the Indians take her to the British at Fort Detroit? And why did the British return her to those same Indians?
- What did the British give the Indians in Michigan that almost killed them all?
- What role did the French villagers serve that led to Mary’s escape?
- Why did the British then capture her and hold her as a prisoner of war?
- How did she escape from the British?
- How did she reach Virginia, to be reunited with her beau, George Spears, and her brother, Sam Neely?
- What happened to her? How long did she live? Where did she live?
